BARRICADE INFORMATION CENTRE
CALENDAR FOR 1999

WHO WE ARE:

Barricade Information Centre stock anarchist books, pamphlets, newspapers, magazines, posters, t-shirts, records, CDS, patches, along with a range of related material on feminism, syndicalism, fiction, etc.

As well as making anarchist literature available in Brunswick we aim to provide an outlet for local publishing and for groups and individuals publishing libertarian material.

The Books/Infoshop is operated by a collective of anarchists. We aim to make our policy decisions collectively, to share our responsibilities and otherwise operate according to our political principles. We are non-profit in outlook and practice - all work in the shop is voluntary and unpaid. We have no funding from state, church or any other institution. Barricade Collective is comprised of many nationalities and we see ourselves as being both anti-sexist, anti-homophobic and anti-racist. We welcome new members especially from the local area.

Barricade Information Centre is on the 19 tram route (stop after Brunswick road) and a short walk from Jewell Railways station on the Upfield Rail Line.

Christos Tsiolkas writer

I GUESS you could call me proudly un-Australian. John Howard would. I'm all for bashing down the door of Parliament House; I supported the striking wharfies; I respect them for having the will and the power to stand up for their rights and their conditions while the rest of us working stiffies roll over, spread our legs and get rammed as hard and as often as the economic rationalist wants to give it to us.

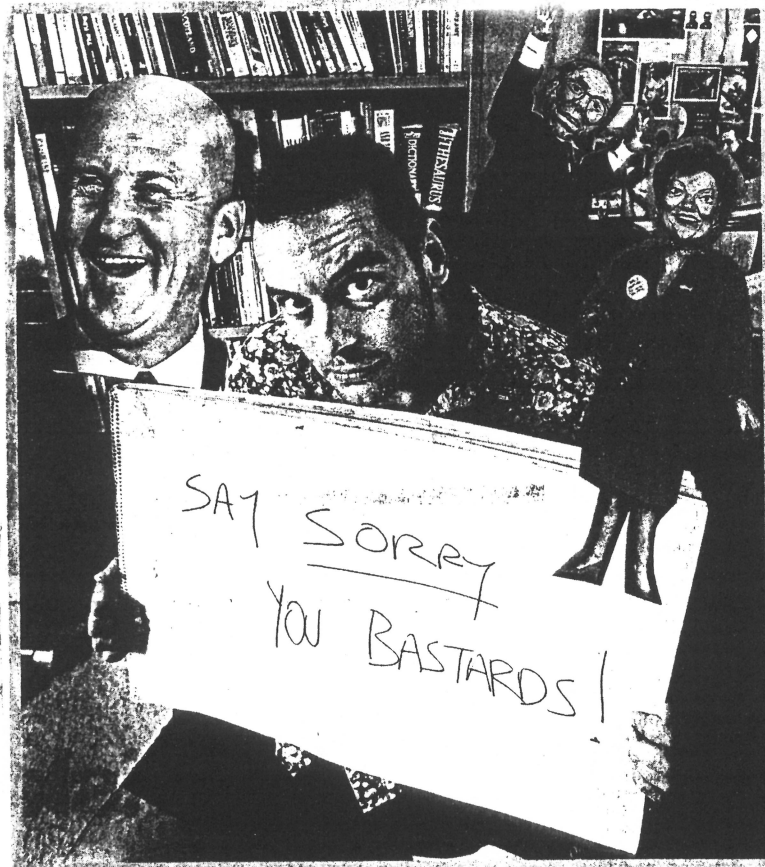

I'm so un-Australian that my favorite parts of this country are Victoria Street, Richmond, and Sydney Road, Brunswick, precisely because I can walk down these streets and not hear the English tongue.

Monoculturalism is boring.

My favorite accent? It is definitely Australian, but only the way the wogs speak it — like the rapid strine from a second-generation Vietnamese kid yelling to a friend on Parramatta Road.

I'm so un-Australian that one of my pet hates is the battler. Petty, ignorant and cowardly, the battler is the archetypal ugly Australian: a whinge and a nag who hasn't got the guts to stand up to the banker or the boss or the bureaucrat who is really screwing them so instead takes it out on the Aborigine or the immigrant or the poor guy on the dole next door (or write books with titles like Among the Barbarians). They call this having "a fair go".

I hate the bush. Too many flies and too many snakes and there is nothing to see except big ugly rocks. I support Wik but if I was Aboriginal I'd be aiming to grab Toorak, South Yarra, Darlinghurst and the North Shore as well. That's where the descendants of the bastards who killed my ancestors would now be living. (The refugees can be relocated to Port Hedland — we've already got a concentration camp there and our Immigration Minister can testify to its luxuriousness. Our Toorak and North Shore matrons wouldn't have to suffer at all.)

My niece is an Australian. She has a man from China for a daddy and a Dutch woman for a mum. Her uncles are faggots and they would be really proud if she grew up to be Australia's first lesbian Prime Minister. But they'd be prouder still if she grew up to play for Richmond or St Kilda in the ruck.

As for Pauline Hanson, I reckon let's just give the whole of Queensland to Indonesia and then let them torture her in their prisons. Let's see what she thinks of Amnesty International then. And let's give Western Australia to East Timor — we owe them. We're only 18 million — we have too much land.

What's an Australian? Anyone who was born here or was born wherever and is now a citizen here: What's "un-Australian"? A term only the racist use.

P.S: I visited England, the Mother Country, last year.

Guess what? They don't give a shit about us.

JUMP CUTS

IN THE MID EIGHTIES, at the height of a materialist frenzy when greed was redefined as a virtue, a chain of chic boutiques called Ariel began selling swastikas and hammers and sickles as fashion pendants. The symbols of fascism and communism sat side by side in a glass case. I went into one shop, in the middle of the city, and asked the man behind the counter why he was selling swastikas, surely he knew that people would be walking past who had suffered torture under the Nazis, people whose families were wiped out by the Second World War.

REVOLUTION

"It's just fashion," he replied, and then justly countered, "And why don't you have a problem with the communist emblems? My family is Croatian. They suffered under the communists."

MELBOURNE ANARCHIST FORUM

Melbourne Anarchist Forum is a co-operative effort, involving members of existing groups, collectives and 'non-aligned', to provide a forum for the hordes of Melbourne anarchists, visiting activists and new people to meet each other.

There are anarchists in your areas, at your local schools, workplaces and old people's homes. It takes all the generations to make a social revolution. While you work with those you get to know and get along with, cooperation between groups means shared resources, information and skills. To find out more check out any of these efforts or start your own @gitation.
